

4Culture, Fantagraphics books, the Alliance Française de Seattle,
The Henry Art Gallery and Seattle Central Library present

Your FREE chances to meet the world-famous artist from Paris

Pierre-François Beauchard (David B.)

- Saturday afternoon, August 16, 2 pm; air-conditioned!

David B. discusses 20 examples of his work

- SEATTLE CENTRAL LIBRARY, Microsoft Auditorium 1000 4th Ave. Seattle, WA 98104 • (206) 264 1120 David B. himself discusses the roots and style of his storytelling and art, including his extraordinary life; his feelings about the artists whose work influenced him, from George Grosz to Edward Gorey, as with a special focus on visually representing the ephemeral (dreams, emotions, the forces of history) and fabulous visuals. Books and posters by the artist available afterwards

FREE OF CHARGE and OPEN TO EVERYONE

- Sunday afternoon, August 17, 4 pm; air-conditioned!

David B. in conversation with Jim Woodring & Peter Bagge
“Romans Graphiques Meet the Graphic Novel”

- Henry Art Gallery auditorium, 15th Ave NE & NE 41st St

A Henry salute to the graphic novel with a powerhouse international panel who will discuss the use of space, image, language and culture in graphic novels - and art. Books by all artists will be available after the audience Q & A as well as limited-edition posters.

FREE OF CHARGE and OPEN TO EVERYONE

A Week Celebrating the French Graphic Novel • www.afseattle.org/bd.htm